

I would really hate to see XM Radio forced to stop offering Traffic and Weather channels. I used my local traffic and weather channel this very evening as I was driving into a black wall cloud. Having the channel at my fingertips calmed me down as I was driving fifteen miles an hour in ten foot visibility. It would truly be a shame to lose these channels.

Sincerely,

Caroline Harper